

UNIFORM POLICY

All students must wear tan khaki pants, white button-up shirts, and closed-toe shoes with a rubber sole—no sneakers or boots. Uniforms must be purchased from Flynn & O’Hara Uniform Company. The chart below details what students will be wearing:

Notes:

- Blazers must be worn to school every day without exception in Trimesters 1 & 2.
- Blazers are required for all special events without exception.
- Ladies may choose to wear pants or skirt to school on a daily basis, but skirts are required for special events.
- Ladies will not be permitted to wear pants under their uniform skirts while in school, at internships or at special events.
- Gym uniforms are required for physical fitness activities and service learning projects.
- All students must wear navy, black or maroon socks when wearing pants.

ADDITIONAL UNIFORM REQUIREMENTS

In order to encourage students to focus during their classes, we have established the following dress code to accompany the standard uniform. We intend to eliminate the natural tendency of students to be distracted by what other students are wearing.

GIRLS

- Skirts/Slacks: Skirts must be the make specified by the school in conjunction with Flynn & O'Hara Uniform Company. Slacks must be tan & khaki dress slacks; no cargo style pants will be permitted.
- Blouses: Must be white & button-up with a collar. Must be tucked in. Polo shirts are not permitted unless they are the official uniform Polo shirt, which can only be worn during trimester 3.
- Shoes: Black or Dark Brown closed-toe, with a rubber sole—no sneakers or boots unless required for gym or service learning
- Belts: Must be black or dark brown
- Head bands: Black, Brown, Navy or Burgundy – no exceptions.

BOYS

- Slacks: Slacks must be tan & khaki dress slacks; no cargo style pants will be permitted.
- Shirts: Must be white & button-up with a collar. Must be tucked in. Polo shirts are not permitted unless they are the official uniform Polo shirt, which can only be worn during trimester 3.
- Shoes: Black or Dark Brown closed-toe, with a rubber sole—no sneakers or boots unless required for gym or service learning
- Belts: Must be black or dark brown

RELIGIOUS ATTIRE

- Students who require an exception to the uniform policy and dress code for religious reasons must present a written note from their parent or guardian.
- Head attire must be Black, Navy (Middle School, 7th/8th Grade) or Burgundy (High School, 9th – 12th).
- This will become a part of the student's uniform and will be expected to be worn consistently. If student arrives to school not wearing said attire, parent will be contacted and the exception may be revoked.

NOT PERMITTED

- No sleeveless shirts/blouses
- No denim
- No spandex
- No capris
- No sneakers or boots
- No socks with skirts (tights or stockings only)
- No earrings larger than the size of a quarter
- No bracelets
- No necklaces or chains
- No shirts (of any style) can be worn over uniform tops
